HOIYA

The image shows the word "HOIYA" written in a highly stylized, cursive script. The letters are thick and black, with a fluid, interconnected appearance. The 'H' has a horizontal bar across its middle. The 'O' is a large, open loop. The 'I' is a simple vertical stroke. The 'Y' has a sharp downward hook. The 'A' is a tall, narrow letter with a horizontal bar. Below the word is a thick, wavy underline that spans the width of the text.
