

ATLANTA-FULTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

R 2 0 0 4 2 7 5 2 9 9

that I Had Duck Feet

By Dr. Seuss

*writing as Theo. LeSieg

Illustrated by B TOBEY-

Copyright © 1965 by Random House, Inc.
TM & text copyright renewed by Dr. Seuss Enterprises, L.P. 1993.
Illustrations copyright renewed 1993 by Random House, Inc.

All rights reserved. Published in the United States by Random House Children's Books, a division of Random House, Inc., New York.

BEGINNER BOOKS, RANDOM HOUSE, and the Random House colophon are registered trademarks of Random House, Inc. CAT IN THE HAT logo ® and © Dr. Seuss Enterprises, L.P. 1957, renewed 1986.
All rights reserved.

www.randomhouse.com/kids
www.seussville.com

Educators and librarians, for a variety of teaching tools, visit us at www.randomhouse.com/teachers

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data:

Seuss, Dr. I wish that I had duck feet, by Theo. LeSieg. "B-40."
New York, Beginner Books [1965] 64 p. col. illus. 24 cm.
I. Tobey, Barney, illus. II. Title. PZ8.3.G276 Iam 65-21211
ISBN: 978-0-394-80040-0 (trade) — ISBN: 978-0-394-90040-7 (lib. bdg.)

I WISH that I had

DUCK FEET

by Dr. Seuss*

writing as Theo. LeSieg

Illustrated by B TOBEY-

I wish

that I had duck feet.

And I can tell you why.

You can splash around in duck feet.

You don't have to keep them dry.

I wish that I had duck feet.
No more shoes!
No shoes for me!
The man down at the shoe store would not have my size, you see.

If I had two duck feet,
I could laugh at Big Bill Brown.
I would say, "YOU don't have duck feet!
These are all there are in town!"

I think it would be very good to have them when I play.
Only kids with duck feet on can ever play this way.

BUT . . .

My mother would not like them.

She would say, “Get off my floor!”

She would say, “You take your duck feet and you take them out that door!”

“Don’t ever come in here again with duck feet on. Now, DON’T.”

SO . . .

I guess I can’t have duck feet.

I would like to. But I won’t.

SO . . .

If I can't have duck feet,

I'll have something else instead . . .

Say!

I know what!

I wish I had two horns up on my head!

I wish I had two deer horns.
They would be a lot of fun.
Then I could wear
ten hats up there!
Big Bill can just wear one.

I think they would be very good
to have when I play ball.
Then nobody could stop me.
No, sir! Nobody at all!

DUCK
ELEPHANT
WHALE
TIGER

My horns could carry books and stuff like paper, pens and strings and apples for my teacher and a lot of other things!

BUT . . .

If I had
big deer horns,
I would never get a ride.

I could never ride the school bus.
I could never get inside!

AND SO . . .

I won't have deer horns.

I'll have something else instead.

I wish I had a whale spout.

A whale spout on my head!

When days get hot it would be good to spout my spout in school.

And then Miss Banks would say, "Thanks! Thanks!
You keep our school so cool."

I could play all day in summer.
I would never feel the heat.

I would beat Big Bill at tennis.
I would play him off his feet.

BUT . . .

My mother would not like it.

I know just what she would say:

“Not in the house!

You shut that off!

You take that spout away.”

I know that she would tell me,
“I don’t want that spout about!”
And when Mother
does not want a thing,
it’s O—U—T. It’s out!

AND SO . . .

I will not have one.

I don't wish to be a whale.

I think it would be better
if I had a long, long tail.

I wish I had a long, long tail.
Some day I will. I hope.
And then I'll show
the kids in town
new ways to jump a rope!

If I had a long, long tail
I know what I would like.
I would like to ride down State Street pulling girls behind my bike.

I wish I had a long, long tail.
And I can tell you why.
I could hit a fly ten feet away and hit him in the eye.

I know Miss Banks would like this. She would smile and she would say, "No other boy in town can hit a fly so far away."

BUT . . .

If I had a long, long tail,
I know that Big Bill Brown would tie me in a tree!

He would!

Then how would I get down?

I don't think that I would like it with my tail tied in a tree.

The more I think about it . . . NO!

No long, long tail for me.

AND SO . . .

If I can't have a tail,

I'll have a long, long nose!

A nose just like an elephant's,
the longest nose that grows.

I wish I had a long, long nose
and I can tell you why.

I think it would be very good

to get at things up high.

Every kid in town would love it.
Every kid but Big Bill Brown.
And every time I saw him
I would sneeze
and blow him down.

Say!

I could help the firemen!

My nose would be just right.

I could help them put out fires

a hundred times a night.

Oh, I would do a lot of things that no one ever did.

And everyone in town would say,
“Just watch that long-nose kid!”

BUT . . .

If I had a long, long nose,

I know what Dad would do.

My dad would make me wash the car!

The house and windows, too!

My dad would make me work all day and wash things with that hose!
I guess it would not be so good to have a long, long nose.

NOW . . .

Let me think about it.

All these things I want are bad.

And so I wish . . .

I wish . . . I wish . . .

What DO I wish I had? . . .

I know what!

I know just what!

I know just what to do!

I WISH THAT I HAD ALL THOSE THINGS!

I'd be a Which-What-Who!

If I could be a Which-What-Who,
I'd jump high in the air.
I'd splash and spout and run about.
I'd give the town a scare!

BUT . . .

The people would not like it.

They would be so scared, I bet,
they would call the town policemen.

They would catch me in a net!

They would put me in the zoo house with my horns and nose and feet.

And hay, just hay,
two times a day
is all I'd get to eat.

LION

WHICH-WHAT-WHO

I think I would be very sad when people came to call.

SO . . .

I don't think a Which-What-Who would be much fun at all.

AND SO . . .

I think
there are some things
I do not wish to be.

And that is why
I think that I just wish to be like ME.

J EASY SEUSS
Seuss,
I wish that I had duck feet /
R2004275299 SDY_SP

NOV 2016

Atlanta-Fulton Public Library

R2004275299

SANDY SPRINGS

The Beginner Book Story

In 1957, Theodor Geisel, known to the world as Dr. Seuss, wrote a book called The Cat in the Hat.

It was fun to read aloud, easy to read alone, and impossible to put down.

From this magically right beginning came the concept of Beginner Books, exacting blends of words and pictures that encourage children to read—all by themselves. Hailed by elementary educators and remedial reading specialists, these enormously popular books are now used in schools and libraries throughout the English-speaking world.

Beginner Books®

The right reading readiness every child needs.™

9 781448 768936

P W Prints

9781448768936

09/17/2019 10:40-3

22