SAN FRANCISCO

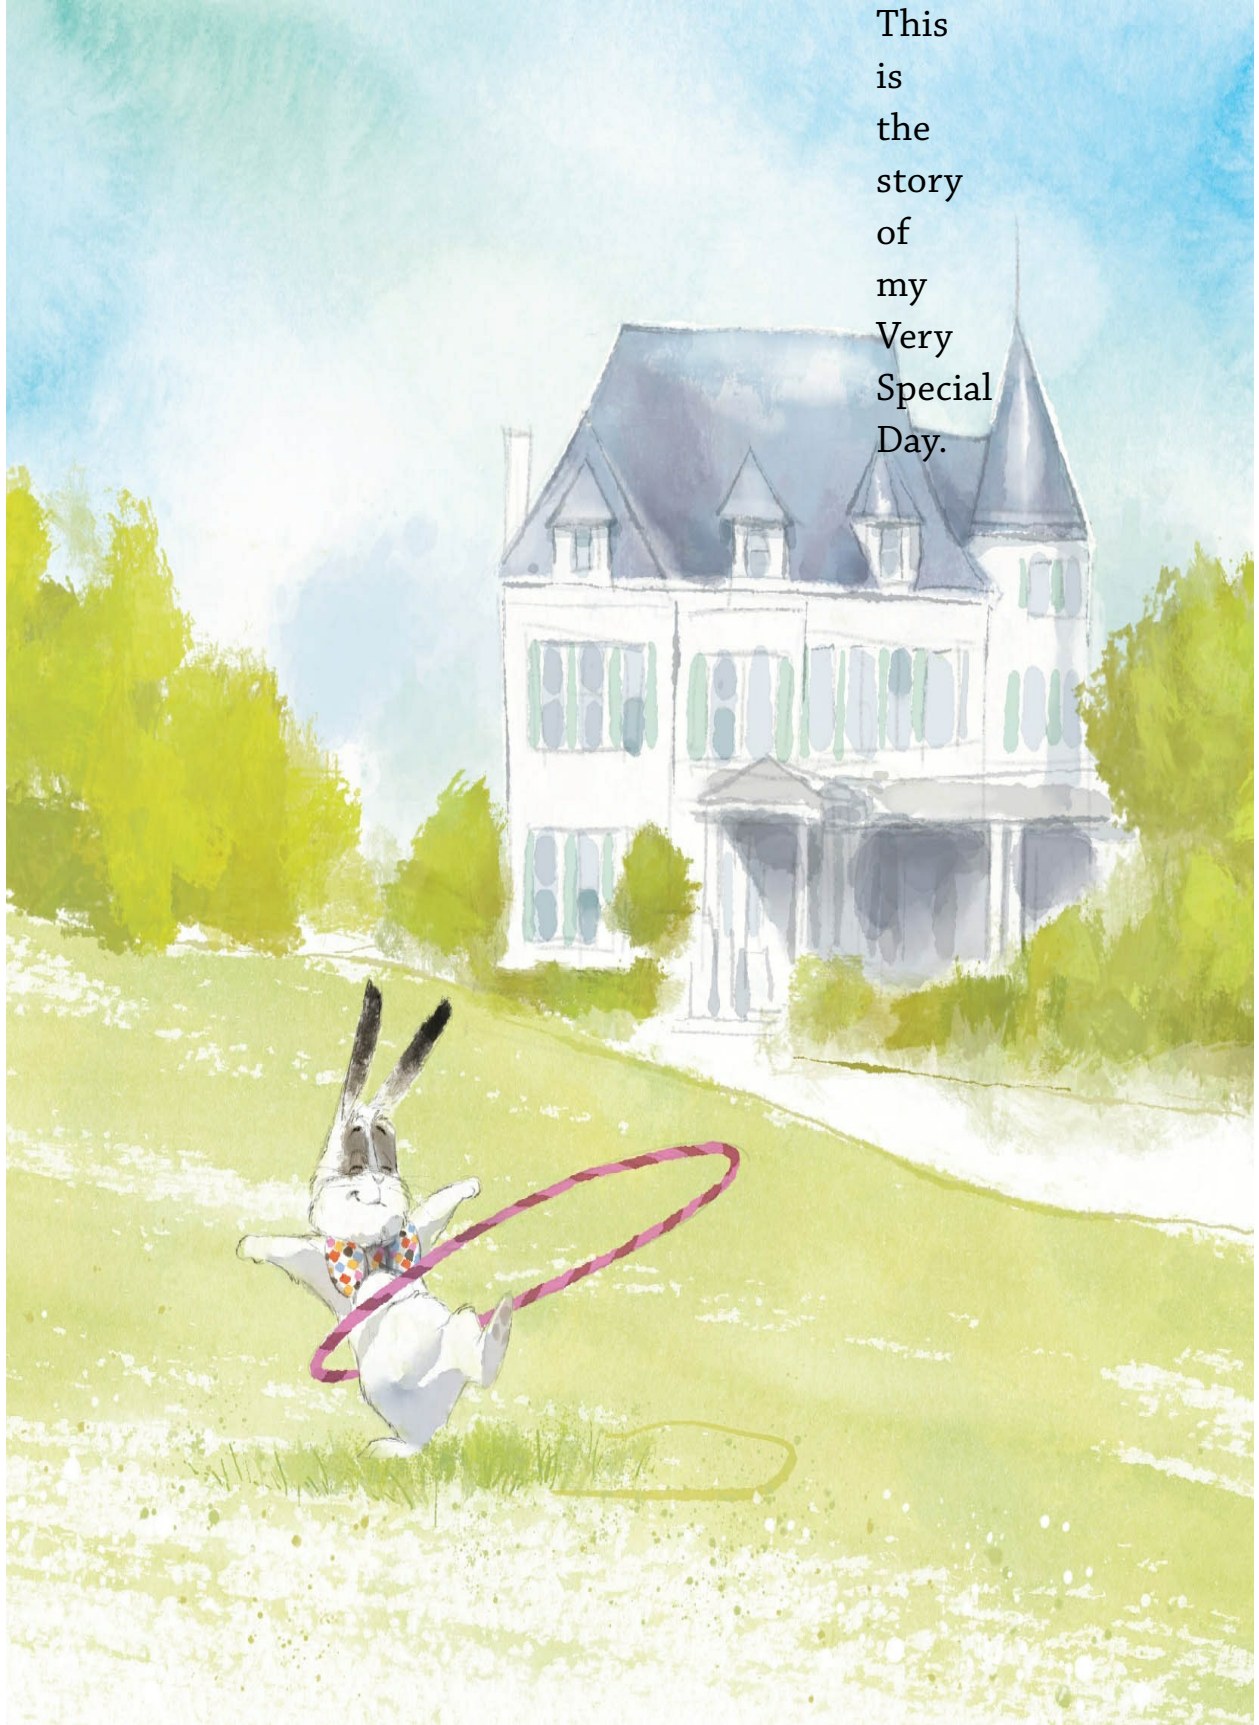

I live with Mom, Grandma, and Grampa in an old, stuffy house on the grounds of the U.S. Naval Observatory. That's because my Grampa is the Vice President.

His name is Mike Pence.

This is the story of my Very Special Day.

Then I ate a fine bunny-
breakfast all alone,

You see, sometimes old, stuffy houses are also lonely.

Hello,
Phil.
Hello,
Dennis.

I was standing still. But being near him made me feel like my heart was still

“My name is Marlon,” I said. “But my family calls me BOTUS. It’s short for ‘Bunny of the United States.’ It’s a long story.”

“My name is Wesley, and my family calls me Wesley,” said Wesley.

We hopped up and down the creaky stairs and made beautiful, creaky stair-music together.

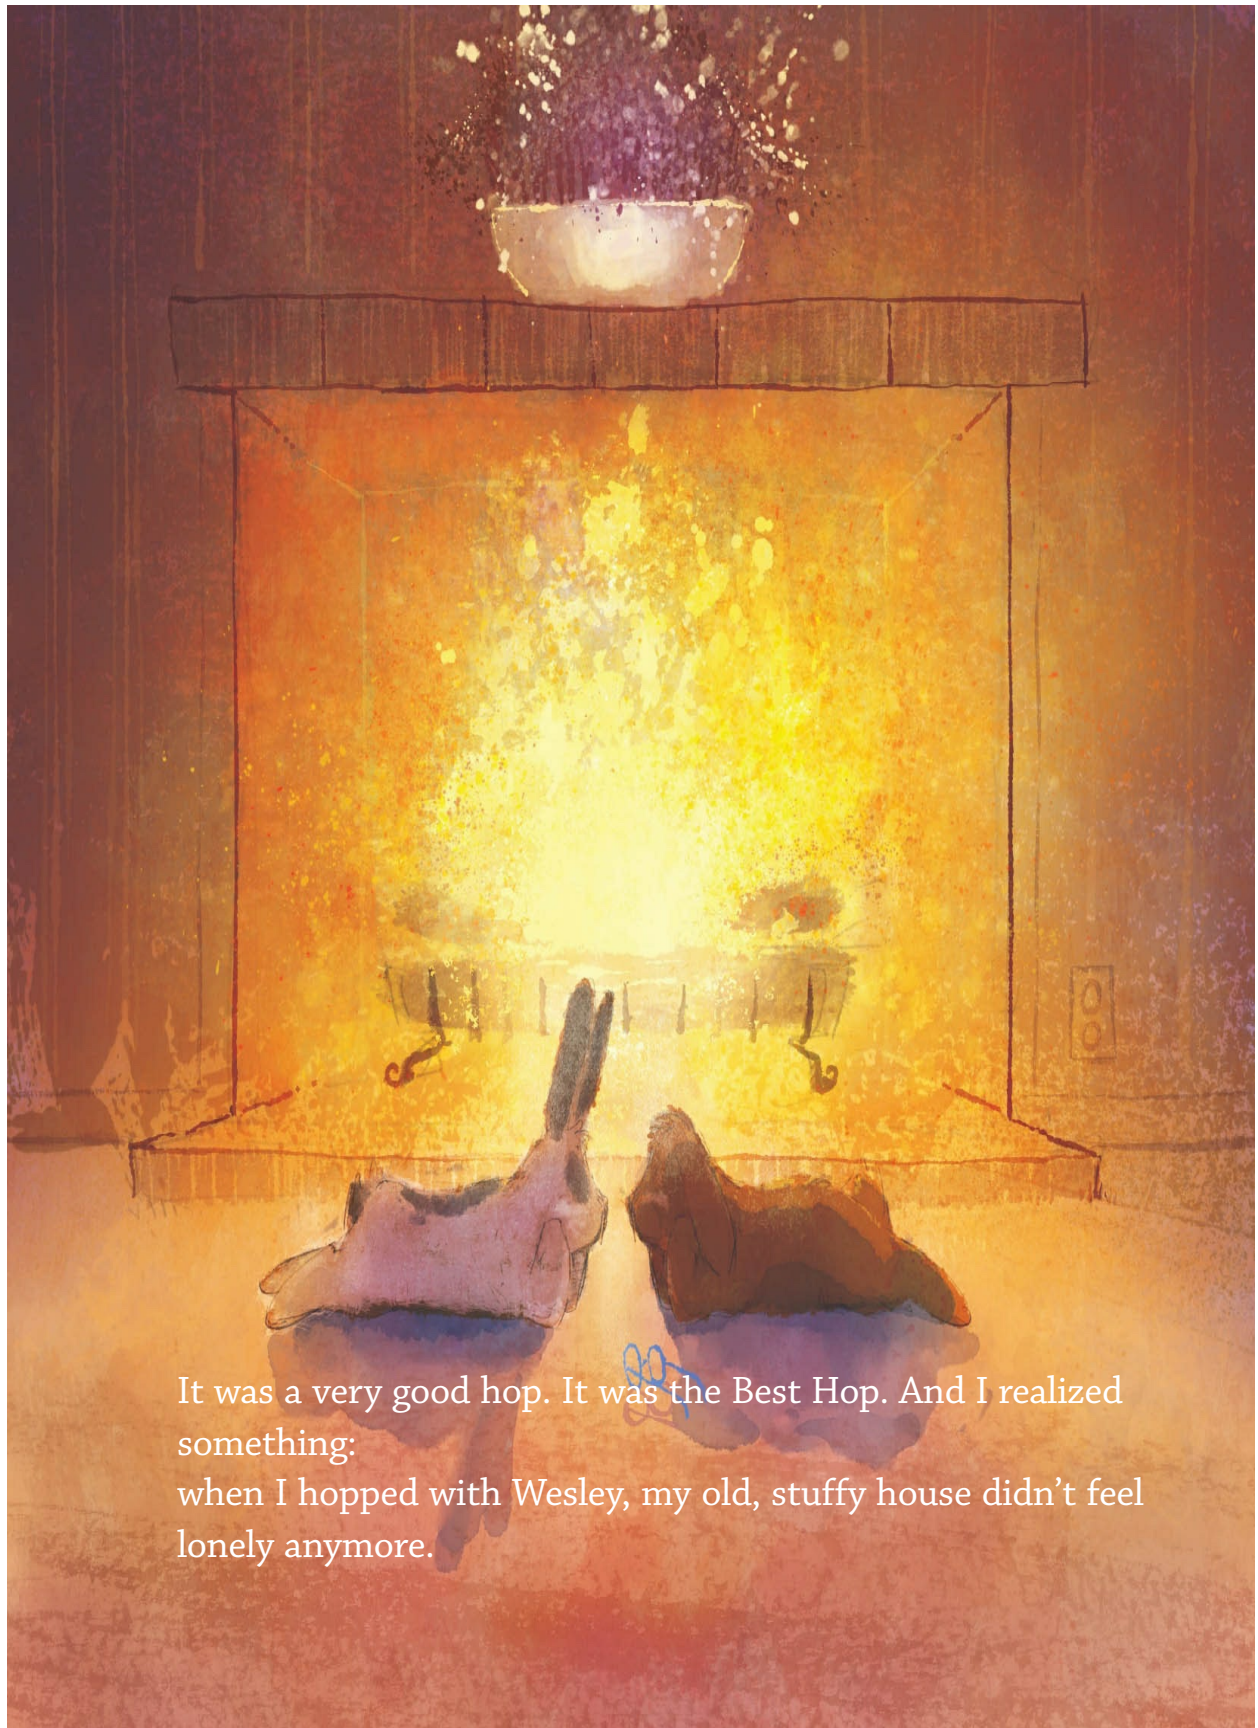

We hopped through Very Boring Meetings with Very Boring People.

It was a very good hop. It was the Best Hop. And I realized something: when I hopped with Wesley, my old, stuffy house didn't feel lonely anymore.

And we both said, “We will get married and hop together Forever.”

“I am different, too,” said Dill Prickle who is a hedgehog.
“I read the ends of books before I read the beginnings,
just to make sure they’re not too sad for me.”

“Sometimes I sniff butts and I don’t know why.”

“Wait!” said Mr. Paws who is a very good dog and also a very smart dog. “Wait a minute! We get to decide who is In Charge.

We get to decide who is Important. We can vote!”

“Hooray!” said me, Marlon Bundo.

“Hooray!” said Wesley.

“Hooray!” said all of our friends. Because that is what friends say.

IN

(Dill Prickle was especially good.)

Because it doesn't matter if you love a girl bunny or a boy
bunny, or eat your sandwich backward or forward.

Love is for
